

ONE CENT—LAST EDITION—ONE CENT

STATE FINISHES ITS SIDE OF ORPET
CASE WITH READING HIS LETTERS

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 5, NO. 227

Chicago, Thursday, June 22, 1916

398

U. S. TO STAND STEADY UNTIL PROVEN THAT MEXICO WANTS WAR

Intervention, If Necessary, Will Not Be a Conquest of Mexico, Says Wilson—Only Twelve Americans Killed In Small Scrimmage—Rush Move of Western Troops.

Washington, June 22—Until it is definitely established that there is an organized effort by Carranza troops to attack or harrass American forces in Northern Mexico, no change in Pres. Wilson's policy toward Mexico is likely, caller learned today.

President is awaiting complete details on fight between Carranza and American soldiers at Carrizal before planning his course.

The white house today was flooded with inquiries as to the true situation. President indicated very clearly that if change in policy occurs it will result on initiative of Mexicans.

If conflict is found necessary as a last resort, the president emphatical-